

CINCINNATI COMMERCIAL CONTRACTING HOSPITALITY PROJECTS

INTEGRITY, LOYALTY, PARTNERSHIP

“CCC showed us their 3D BIM modeling experience, and we brought in a few of our investors so they were able to visualize the hotel project. That was one of things that differentiated CCC from other contractors. I 100% recommend CCC – we are already working on other projects together. They have proven themselves to me; they care about the project and about you. They have integrity, they have loyalty. It’s a great partnership.”

BUILDING INVITING SPACES

Restaurants and hotels build their business by creating a brand that stands for comfort, quality and customer service. Your store or building is the first thing that customers see. To create a great first impression, you need an experienced builder that knows how to partner with you in order to best achieve your needs. CCC understands that the long-term success of your business depends on efficiencies that are built into your project from the beginning.

Whether you have a design or theme for your facility or you must adhere to corporate brand guidelines for your business, you will receive the expertise necessary to make your new building stand out from the crowd. Your guests will see the difference as soon as they walk through your door.

CLIENT FOCUSED, RESULTS DRIVEN

Building restaurants and hotels is an exacting business. From dining and gathering spaces to complex kitchens, indoor pools, hotel rooms and suites, each area must serve your customers while functioning seamlessly for your staff. Every aspect of your business will be taken into account throughout the planning process and pre-construction meetings. From design and materials selected to the advertised details and opening date, CCC develops and maintains a strict build schedule to ensure that all trades involved work efficiently.

Over the course of 40+ years, CCC has developed a tried and true process. One that ensures every clients experience with us is excellent. That's why so many clients return to us for all of their commercial construction needs.

Form and function are critical to your success. Your new facility must look great and function beautifully to remain memorable. CCC pays attention to every detail so that you can focus on your business.

With 3D Modeling your team, partners and investors can see your project, both interior and exterior before construction begins. This will save you time and money. Plus get you the buy-in of important stakeholders.

Communication is key to the success of every project. From your initial meeting with CCC to a final walk through, your Project Manager will be there to answer every question and take care of all of your needs.
